1 What time does Greta have her tennis match?
A Mum, are you going to your chess course?
B Yes, it's at quarter to three. Why?
A I'm playing tennis with Martha this afternoon. Could you give me a lift to the court before your course? I need to be there by twenty past two.
B Oh, OK then, but let's hurry up: it's already ten to two!

2 What will Tom do next Tuesday?
A Have you been to the new swimming pool? It's really cool! I went there on Saturday.
B Great! Why don't we go there together next Tuesday afternoon, Tom?
A I'd love to but I have a guitar lesson on that day. If you want, we can go with Katie on Thursday, if she doesn't have her dance class?
B OK I'll ask Katie, then.

3 What did the girl do yesterday?
A Did you go to Mandy's party yesterday?
B I wanted to, but I had a French test this morning so I had to study all afternoon. What did you do yesterday?
A I went to a restaurant with my family. We wanted to celebrate my grandma's birthday.
B Great! How old is she?
A 70!

4 How's the boy going home from the station tomorrow?
A I don't know how to get home from the station tomorrow evening. The buses stop early.
B Isn't your dad going to pick you up?
A Unfortunately, he'll be at work, and my mother isn't in town.
B Don't worry. I'll ask my brother: he's having dinner with my aunt tomorrow. She lives near the station. I'm sure he can meet you there and drive you home.
A Thanks, Emma.

5 What is the girl going to eat?
A Have you decided what you want? The chicken is very good.
B Mmm, I'd like to have something light. I'm playing volleyball this afternoon.
A How about fruit salad? I tried it yesterday for dessert and it tasted delicious.
B Actually, I don't really like having sweet foods for lunch. I think I'll try the fish soup.
A I'll have chicken again.

You will hear a teacher telling her students about a museum they are going to visit.

Good Morning, I'm going to tell you what you need to know for next Friday's trip to the Egyptian Museum. First of all, remember that students pay less than adults, so instead of the usual 8 pounds you will only need to bring 5 pounds fifty; if your parents want to go too, they will have to pay the full price.
You will go to the museum with the history teacher but he's ill so you can't give him the money. The Maths teacher will collect it tomorrow at the end of her lesson.
The Museum opens at half past nine, but we'll have to leave school and be at the bus station by quarter past eight because the journey there is about 45 minutes. We won't take the train because it would take longer to get there.
The Museum has a café so you don't need to bring food or drink. Remember that you can take photos inside the museum so don't leave your cameras at home.

You will hear Frank talking about a holiday he had.

A Hi Frank, I hear you've just come back. How was your holiday?

B It was amazing! I've always loved going to the beach or visiting other countries in summer, but the two weeks I spent in the mountains were absolutely brilliant.
A I'd love to go too. Is it far from here?
B No, actually it's quite close, just half an hour by car. There's a wonderful hotel with tennis courts and an indoor swimming pool. I'm sure you would love it.
A Cool! Did you stay there?
B Unfortunately I couldn't. It was fully booked; there was a nice campsite near the hotel but it was too cold; anyway, my father's best friend lives there, so we stayed there all the time.
A I'm really glad you had a great time… what was the weather like?
B It was mostly sunny and warm. I was afraid it would rain a lot: you now it may be a little boring when it rains in the mountains. I hope next time we'll stay longer. Two weeks isn't enough!
A You mean you're going there again next year?
B Actually, my parents told me they'd like to do something different next summer. They love visiting foreign towns so we'll see what to do before June.
A That's the best thing to do. There's still a lot of time before next summer.

16 You will hear a boy and a girl talking about a teacher, Ms Thompson. What does she teach?
A So what do you think about Ms Thompson?
B I really like the way she explains things. I mean, we've already found out lots of interesting things about the countries we're studying this term and not just learning about the capital cities. She also likes telling us about the history of these countries or what foods you can eat there.
A I suppose you're right. Though I still prefer our Maths teacher's lessons.

17 You will hear a girl talking about her favourite sport. What sport is it?
I love all winter sports. I tried skiing last winter and I really enjoyed it at first but then it got a bit boring. In my opinion, there's nothing better than snowboarding. Of course, you need to be fit and it's easier to get hurt. That's why I always train at the gym for a month before I go to the mountains.

18 You will hear a boy talking with his mother. What does she want him to do?
A Hi, Mum, I'm back.
B Did you remember to take the books back to the library?
A Sure, and I've bought the drinks for tomorrow's trip as well.
B OK, here's what you need to make the sandwiches. I can't do that as I have to work this afternoon.
A OK, see you later Mum.

19 You will hear a football coach talking to one of the players. When is the next match?
Henry, don't forget that this week football practice is at quarter to five on Monday, not on Tuesday. We're playing against Gillford Junior High on Thursday at the same place where we played our last game on Sunday. Don't forget to bring our team's new yellow T-shirts, of course.

20 You will hear two friends talking about what they will do tomorrow. What will the weather be like?

A Shall we go for a bike ride tomorrow?
B I don't know. I think it might rain tomorrow…
A No, I don't think so. The weather forecast said it's definitely going to be sunny.
B OK, let's try it. The last time we went, it started raining while we were cycling, but it stopped after a few minutes.
A Right, see you tomorrow then!

You will hear Harriet talking to her aunt about a school concert. What will each classmate do?

Harriet Are you coming to our school concert on Saturday, Aunt Milly?
Milly Sure, Harriet. Are you playing the piano again?
Harriet No, I'm singing a song from 'Rigoletto'.
Milly The opera?
Harriet Yes. I love opera! This year we're including different types of music. Akos is singing hip -hop.
Milly So, everyone is singing or playing an instrument?
Harriet No. If a student doesn't want to go on stage, they can help with the show.
Milly I remember Olga filmed last year's show.
Harriet Yes, but now she's learning the guitar, so she's doing that this year.
Milly So, no one's filming the show this year?
Harriet Oh yes. Shane has broken his arm so he's doing the filming.
Milly And your sister Jenny?
Harriet She wanted to organise the tickets, but our teacher is doing that. So Jenny's doing the lights.
Milly Oh, OK! And what about Tracy? She loves playing drums, doesn't she?
Harriet Yes, but she's so noisy she has to play the violin instead.
Milly Ha ha! OK, so where can I get a ticket from?

1 How is James going to school tomorrow?
A Mum, can you drive me to school tomorrow? My scooter is broken.
B Can't you get the school bus, as usual?
A The school bus driver is sick, so I need to get to school another way.
B All right, we'll leave tomorrow at 7.00. Don't be late!

2 Why is Trevor tired?
A Hey Trevor, are you going to the football practice this evening.
B I'm not sure, I'm really tired!
A Maybe it's because you went to Tina's party last night...
B Actually I didn't. My brother had two tickets to see our favorite band so we went, but it finished after midnight.
A Oh, I see...

3 Which type of film does Angela enjoy?
A Do you want to go and see that new horror film?
B I saw that yesterday. It was too scary, but it had some funny scenes as well. I laughed a bit. Let's go and see 'Wild Animals' instead.
A Really? You don't like documentaries on wild animals!
B Well, they're better than horrors!

4 Where will the boy and the girl meet tomorrow?
A Shall we go to the swimming pool together?
B Sure, let's take the bus at 5.
A Well, actually my father said he can drive us there today. He needs to go into town anyway. We can come and pick you up from home at around ten past five.
B Sounds great. See you later, then.

5 Which T-shirt is Paul going to buy?
A So which of these three do you like best?
B Well, I really like the striped one but it's too big for me.
A That's a shame. They haven't got any white T-shirts. How about this yellow one here?
B OK, good idea. I'll get that one for a change.

You will hear a teacher telling her students about a week at the Arts Centre they take part in.

Right everyone. Just some information on The Arts Centre that is open from July to September. You will leave at half past nine on the 17th and get there in about half an hour. During the week you will spend there, you will have several activities to choose from: students can do painting or drawing from 8 a.m. to midday, while after lunch those who are interested can try dancing or photography. The courses are available for students aged 11 to 15, but remember your parents have to fill in a form where they agree to let you do the courses.
During the week at the Arts Centre you will also be able to take part in weekend activities: Unfortunately we won't be able to take you to the swimming pool as we did last year but we will go on a trip to London and visit museums as well. The cost of the week, which includes accommodation and meals, is 139 pounds, so please remember to bring the money by Thursday.

You will hear Adam talking about a cooking class he did.

A Hi Adam. Jessie told me you've decided to learn how to cook. How is the course you're doing?
B Well, it was my mother who told me to do it. At first I thought it wouldn't be so interesting as I don't want to be a chef like her. But half an hour after the class started, I realised it was a great opportunity: you know how I love good food, so making dishes can be great fun.
A I'm sure it was great way to spend the day.
B It was! And being in a kitchen from morning to evening was a very interesting experience. After the first half hour when the teacher told us what to use, it took me only three hours to make a very special meal with very simple foods such as cheese, vegetables and eggs. When I got back in the evening I was really happy about the results.
A Was the kitchen large?
B Very large. There were 14 of us, but we had enough space to work.
A So are you going to the course on desserts next month?
B I'd love to, but I don't think I'll have enough time because next month I have a lot of tests. Anyway I'd like to keep working in the kitchen by myself. I'd like to try to make a meal for my vegetarian grandmother. She really loves trying new dishes so I'll see what I can do: I have an interesting cookbook with a lot of wonderful vegetable dishes!
A Sounds great! I hope you'll invite me too.

16 You will hear a boy and a girl talking about a concert. What do they agree about?
A Are you going to the 'Shooting Stars' concert tomorrow? I love them!

B I'm not sure. I think the tickets are too expensive.
A I think the price is OK, actually. I went to the cinema last weekend and that cost nine pounds. And seeing a band live on stage is much more fun!
B Well, I'll think about it. After all they're my favourite band.

17 You will hear a boy talking about his teacher. Where is the teacher from?
This year we have a new French teacher. He's really cool. He told us he studied in France, but he was born in Djibouti, which is an African country on the Red Sea. His first job was as a tour guide for a Canadian travel company. But last year he decided to do something more useful for children, so he chose to become a teacher.

18 You will hear a girl, Lisa, talking with her father. What does she want him to do?
A Have you finished your Maths homework, Lisa?
B Yes, thanks for helping me, Dad. I still have to do my Science homework, but I don't think it will take too long.
A So maybe we can go cycling in the park in half an hour?
B Mmm, I don't know, Dad. I've got a French test tomorrow but I don't understand some words. Can you tell me what they mean?
A I can try. Let me see.

19 You will hear two friends planning the weekend. What are they going to do?
A I can't wait to get away from the city this weekend!
B I know. I need some fresh air. Now, don't forget to pack a scarf. It gets really cold when you're at the top.
A True, but you get a great view of the sea from high up there.
B Oh, and remember your sunglasses too. When it's sunny it's difficult to see with all the snow.

20 You will hear two friends talking about a school play. What does Jack think about it?
A Hey Jack, did you like the play we saw this morning?
B Well, I thought it would be more boring, but I actually enjoyed seeing our classmates take part.
A Oh, yes, that was fun, but maybe a few of them should have learnt their part better.

Kevin Hey Dad, can you help me do some research on monkeys? We're doing a science project on wild animals and I've got to write a few pages for next week.
Dad Sure. What are your classmates doing?
Kevin Well, my best friend Jason has the most interesting project: he has to study spiders. You know I love spiders.
Dad How about Amanda? I know she really likes horse riding. Is she going to write about horses?
Kevin No, actually she chose penguins because her father took some photos when he was in Antactica. And Lenny has already finished his project on fish.
Dad Is Phil doing his research on lions? I know he loves big cats.
Kevin Yes, he is. And Sally wants to study bees: she wants to tell us how they make honey.

Dad That's interesting!

B But you used it just now when we were in the taxi.
A I remember. I put it down on the seat while I was putting my jacket on.
B Look, the taxi's there in front of the library. Let's go back quickly.

2 What will the girl eat?
A What are you going to eat? Did you have the chicken last time?
B Yes, but it wasn't very nice.
A Oh right. I've already had salad for lunch today so… I'm going to have fish now.

B That's a good idea. I'll have the same as you.

3 What is the weather like now?
A Has it stopped raining yet?
B Yes, but it's still really windy. Mum says it's probably going to continue for a few hours.
A Do you think it will snow later?
B I hope so: I really love the snow!

4 What does Kurt borrow?
A Why don't you put your cap on, Kurt. It's raining again!
B I haven't got my cap: I left it at home because it wasn't raining this morning.
A Don't worry. I'll lend you my umbrella.
B Thanks, Anna.

5 What sport are these students talking about?
A Aren't you tired after running around for an hour?
B If you're fit, it's OK. It was difficult to see the ball sometimes, though. It's so fast!

Hello everybody. I'm going to give you some information about tomorrow's school boat race. All racers must be at the meeting point at ten o'clock because the race will begin at half past ten. All you need to wear is a pair of shorts. You shouldn't wear sunglasses because you may lose them during the race.
Remember that the race is only for students aged 10 to 15. The swimming race for younger children will take place on Friday.
There are different prizes for each race. In the school boat race, for those who win the first prize there is a new surfboard, and those who come second and third will get a book on sailing each. Don't be sad if you don't win, though: everybody who takes part in the race will get a T-shirt as a souvenir. If you haven't signed up, now just tell me and I will add you to the list.

Nelly Hey Bart: I haven't seen you for a long time. Where were you last month?
Bart Hi Nelly, I was on holiday in Italy with my parents. My uncle Jeff lives there so we stayed at his house. Why are you wearing a school uniform?
Nelly Well, I can't wear my own clothes any more like at our old school. I changed school last term when I moved to a different part of the town. I told you, didn't I?
Bart Yes, but I didn't know you have to wear a uniform now. That must be awful!

Nelly Oh I don't know. It's not such a bad thing, in my opinion.
Bart But don't you want to wear the clothes you choose?
Nelly Yes, but… the good thing is that I don't have to think about what I have to wear every morning.
Bart Well, maybe… but I wouldn't like to wear a uniform anyway. I don't like looking like other people. I want to be different!
Nelly I don't mind wearing a uniform but I miss wearing my clothes at school sometimes, of course…
Bart I'm sure you do... but this way you don't need to buy so many clothes anymore. You're right, school uniforms aren't so bad at all!

B I thought you loved football...
A I do, but my team isn't playing and my favourite TV series starts in 10 minutes.
B Aren't you going to watch the documentary on kangaroos? You said you wanted to see it with your sister.
A My sister said she's going to record it, so I'll see it another time

17 You will hear two friends talking about a drawing course. What did the girl enjoy most about the course?
A Hi Lisa. How was your drawing class?
B Fantastic - I learnt so much. The teacher was good, but very serious!
A So what was the best thing?
B I think, more than anything, I liked trying different ways of drawing. I've never done that before. I had a lot of fun with the other students, too.

18 You will hear a girl talking about going to school. Why doesn't she want to go with her friend?
A Shall we go to school together tomorrow?
B I think I'll go by myself. I have to get to school early.
A But it's more fun if you come with me. We can chat on the way there.
B But we're often late because you walk too slowly… I like chatting, but we can walk home after school!

19 You will hear a boy talking about a day out with his grandparents. Why did they go to the lake?
A How did you spend your weekend, Sam?
B I went to the lake with my grandparents.
A The one near here? But it's so quiet and boring!
B That's why we went to another lake. It's not so close so we had to drive there. But the water was lovely and warm and I had a lot of fun in the water.

20 You will hear a girl talking about a film. Why was the film a surprise?
A What did you think about the film, Anna?

B It was great, although perhaps a bit too long. I really liked the actors. And they were about the same age as us! I couldn't believe it when you told me their age!

A What did Yuki bring? I know she loves making cakes.
B Yes, she does but this time she brought some ice cream because she had no time to cook.
A Oh no! So, you didn't get a birthday cake?
B Of course I did! Leela brought a cake. It was a delicious strawberry cake.
A How about Paul? Did he make his lovely omelettes?
B Yes, and this time he put potatoes in them.
A And Shane? She always cooks rice when there's a party.
B Not this time! In fact, Shane made a salad! I couldn't believe it!

B Sorry, Caleb. I need to finish my Maths homework.
A OK, so can we meet at the bus station at twenty past six?
B Yes, OK. We can still get to basketball practice before it begins at quarter past seven.

2 Which trainers will the girl buy?
A Excuse me, do you have these striped trainers in size 38?
B No, sorry but we've got these white ones in your size.
A I've already tried those on. Do you have them in another colour?
B Sure, how about black ones?
A I don't like black very much. I'll take the white ones.

3 Who is George's uncle?
A Hey this man really looks like you. Is he your uncle Dave?
B Oh, no… my uncle doesn't wear glasses. That's my father's best friend.
A What does your uncle look like?
B He's not very tall, and he's got a beard. He looks like my father a lot.

4 What did the girl do on Tuesday?
A So how was your week Sally?
B Most days I had to study for my Spanish exam on Friday. On Thursday evening, however, my parents took us to a restaurant to celebrate my brother's birthday.
A But wasn't his birthday on Tuesday?
B Yes, it was, but I had a singing class, so we went on Thursday instead.

5 Which photo does the boy like most?
A Are these the photos you took in Australia? I really like this one of the koalas.

You will hear a teacher telling some boys and girls about the school's summer music classes.

Good morning class. I'd like to tell you about the music classes that the school is offering this summer. If you're interested in learning to play a musical instrument, you need to book before the 4th July. All the classes will start on the 14th of July and last until the 28th July.
You can choose from several musical instruments such as the drums, the guitar and the violin. Most lessons are on weekdays but the guitar teacher can only teach students on Saturday.
As the courses are all for beginners, you can borrow an instrument from the school. You can collect them from Room 30 on the third floor from the first week of July.
The course isn't very expensive: each of the ten lessons will cost £7, so £70 in total. However, if you pay for the whole course at once, you get a 10% discount and will only pay 63 pounds.

Carol How did you like the film?
Richard Well, I don't usually enjoy watching films about history, I think they're boring. But this time I found it quite interesting.
Carol I agree with you. I suppose it was because the actors were really good. I loved them, especially the girl playing young Queen Elizabeth.
Richard I'm not so sure… actually, what I liked best was the photography.
Carol It was a bit long. I wanted to meet my friends after the movie, but it's already 6 and I have to go home now. I'm going to Cork tomorrow morning.
Richard But it was only 2 and a half hours long. A film about the life of a queen can't be shorter than that!
Carol Maybe you're right. At least we've learnt something useful. We're studying the life of Queen Elizabeth at school.
Richard Yes, it will help us with the history test we've got next week.
Carol True. So, what about going to the cinema again next Saturday? There's a film about Queen Victoria…
Richard Well, as I told you, I'm not into historical films. Why not watch a horror or a comedy?
Carol Horror films are too scary! Let's go see something funny.

16 You will hear a boy and a girl talking about fast food. What does he say about it?
A Shall we go for a hamburger at the new fast-food restaurant, Adam?
B I'd love to, but I'm going swimming at 4 p.m. and I always have a burger after that. How about that café on the corner? They make delicious salads.
A I know salads are healthy… but they're really boring!

B Yeah, they're not as good as chips or hotdogs. Let's go to the Sushi bar. We can have some fish instead.

17 You will hear two friends talking about the new gym. When did it open?
A Hi Amanda, have you been to the new gym?
B No, I haven't. I thought it wasn't ready yet. It was shut when I walked past it last month.
A They finished painting it a few weeks ago. I joined it last week when it opened. It was really crowded but it's really modern. Why don't you join it too?
B Sure, call me when you go again and I'll go with you.

18 You will hear a girl talking about her volleyball coach. What does she say about him?
A What's the matter Sylvia? You look sad.
B This morning my volleyball team played against Black Stars but my coach didn't let me play. He only lets me play in easy games…
A Perhaps he thinks you need more practice?
B But I go to every training session. I'm sure it's because of my height. I'm not as tall as the other players, you know...

19 You will hear a boy and his mother talking about school. Why is his mother worried?
A Have you finished doing your French exercises? Remember you got a bad mark last week...
B No, I'm doing Science homework for tomorrow right now. The French test is on Monday.
A Oh, but you have no problem learning Science. You need to study the subjects you don't like and spend less time on the Internet!
B But I only go online for my homework!

20 You will hear a boy and a girl talk about a campsite. What was good about it?
A Where did you stay on holiday?
B At a campsite. It was quite nice but it had a few problems.
A Oh no. Like what?
B Well, it was really quiet but that was OK. I don't like campsites where people talk and play loud music all night. The problem was that the showers in the bathroom were old and broken. Fortunately, we were by the sea so I swam when I needed to wash…

You will hear Antonio talking to his sister about the summer holidays. What did each of his friends do?

A How was your first day of school, Antonio?
B Brilliant. Seeing my classmates again after two months was great fun.
A Did you tell them you went to Austria by train?
B Yep, and guess what? Oliver went there too but he took the plane.
A Did Megan spend the holidays with his grandparents in France as usual?
B She did, but she was really bored. She said her parents are planning to go to Portugal or Wales next summer.
A Portugal! I'd love to go there, too. And where did the others go?
B Michael visited a lot of Irish towns and villages with his aunt.
A And where was Sophie? She is really brown!

B She was in sunny Spain. Lucky Sophie!
A Did Liam go to Brazil to meet his cousins?
B No, he'll probably go there at Christmas. He just spent a few weeks in Scotland where his father works.

A What do you want to have for lunch, Sue? Shall we have a bowl of that carrot soup?
B I don't like vegetables very much… the pizza looks good...
A I think I'll have a sandwich. Pizza isn't very healthy.
B You're right. I'll have the same as you.

2 What sport does the boy want to do?
A Are you doing karate this year?
B I'd like to, but the training is on Monday, when I have my piano class.
A That's a pity. Why don't you try horse riding?
B I think that's a bit dangerous. You might fall off! I think I'll just play football again like last year.

3 What is the girl going to buy?
A Hello, can I help you?
B Yes, I'm looking for some trousers to go with this blouse I'm wearing.
A Well, these trousers are very popular at the moment. They look good with this jumper too.
B No, thanks, I don't need a jumper. How much are they?

4 What will Nancy do?
A Is Nancy coming to your party?
B Unfortunately, she can't come. She's got to go to the hospital.
A Oh no! What's wrong? Has she had an accident?
B No, she's fine. She's visiting her uncle who's unwell.
A That's a pity. Nancy loves seeing her old friends.

5 Where are the girl's glasses?
A Mum, have you seen my glasses? They aren't on the bookshelf...

You will hear a teacher telling some boys and girls about a photo competition.

Hello, everyone. I'm going to tell you about this year's photo competition: as you know, last year's photos were about travel; this year, however, students have to take pictures about nature. You can choose to take a photo of animals or plants and send it to the school office from July 23rd to the 28th. The competition will be on the last Tuesday of July.
The students who want to take part in the competition must send two photos, but only one will be chosen. The winners will receive an email message before the competition day. There will be three prizes: the third prize is a cap; the second prize is a T-shirt and the winner of this year's competition will get a backpack.
Remember to tell your family and friends that the photo exhibition will be on the fourth floor of the school. Now, if you have any questions, I'll be happy to answer all of them.

You will hear Monica and her friend Jonathan talking about a holiday.

A Hi Jonathan. So, the holidays are over, back to school again…
B I know, but I had a great one this year.
A Where did you go?
B Well, my mother loves Canada and Dad really wanted to visit Brazil, but we finally booked flights to the USA.
A Lucky you! How long did you stay there?
B We went in the first week of the holiday, on the 3rd of July and came back on the 30th. We toured several places like Niagara Falls and New York, but the best was Yellowstone Park.
A Wow, what's that like?
B Well, it was really exciting. It's the oldest national park in the USA and it's really big. At times it was a bit scary too. We spent some nights at a campsite in the park. We were worried the bears might come at night! Anyway, we saw lots of wild birds, foxes and a lot of other wild animals. We even saw a snake in a river, but it wasn't a dangerous one.
A Did your brother enjoy the holiday?
B Yes, he did but he spent too much money on souvenirs. I only got a few. However, I didn't take enough photos. That was a mistake!

A Hey, I didn't see you when the film ended yesterday. Where were you?
B I asked the teacher if I could leave before the end.
A Why? What happened? Was the film so bad?
B That's not the reason I left. I had a terrible headache. The teacher phoned my mum and told her to pick me up from the cinema.

17 You will hear two friends talking about a basketball match. Why was the girl unhappy about it?
A Did you go to the basketball match yesterday?
B Yes. It wasn't an exciting match though…
A Well, at least our team won. We didn't play so badly, especially your brother.
B Yes, that's true, he played well until he fell over and then he couldn't play anymore!
A I hope his leg is better soon. We need him for the next match!

18 You will hear two friends talking about a book they've read. What do they agree about?
A Have you finished the book the teacher gave us?
B Yes, but it took me ages to read, I nearly didn't finish it!
A I know, too many pages! I didn't really like it, to be honest. And then I didn't understand the ending.
B Really? I guessed the ending right away. The story is pretty much the same as lots of others I've read.

19 You will hear two friends talking about a computer game. Why is the girl talking to the boy about it?
A Hi Rob, you know the computer game you lent me?
B Sure, do you have it with you?

A I don't, actually. My sister saw it while I was putting it in my schoolbag. She took it to play it this afternoon. I know I had to give it back to you today, but can I keep it until Saturday?
B OK, but don't forget please. I want to play it with my cousin when he comes on Sunday.

20 You will hear two friends talking about afternoon lessons. What is the boy learning to do?
A How are the tennis lessons going?
B Actually, I stopped a few weeks ago. I didn't really like it so I changed to something I enjoy more.
A I guess it's about chess.
B Yes, right. You really know me. I'm not so interested in sport. I prefer things like reading, playing the guitar or watching films. So, I decided to try chess.
A Well, I think I'd prefer to learn a new sport, but of course we're all different.

Sam: Our German teacher got really angry this morning!
Father Why?
Sam Well, nobody except Toby like this subject. Every time the German teacher talks, all my classmates start chatting.
Father Really? Even you?
Sam Well, you know I'm not very keen on German… I prefer English.
Father What about Jessica? She spent some months in Germany, right?
Sam Yes, she did, so now she says it's too easy for her and she gets bored. She has started Italian and she loves it.
Father Well, she's obviously good at languages.
Sam Yes, not like Marina, who is hopeless at English! She prefers doing Maths exercises!
Father Your Maths teacher will be pleased about that!
Sam Her brother is different, he loves Art. He's brilliant at drawing.
Father Who's this clever boy?
Sam Oh, Dad, it's Henry! Don't you remember? He came here with his friend, Colin, a week ago. He's in my class, too.
Father Oh yes, he's a good football player. He must like PE best.
Sam No. He's really into Science and wants to be a scientist.

B No, that looks too boring. Let's send her the first one you liked.

2 Where is the girl going next?
A Are you going to tennis practice, Sue?
B Yes, Dad, but I need to go to the library first. I have to return a couple of books.
A Oh, could you get me the newspaper then?
B OK, I'll get it on my way back from tennis.

3 What time is the art class tomorrow?
A Hi, Joanna, are you going to the art class at half past two tomorrow?
B Yes, but it starts later this week. The teacher won't be back from the school trip until a quarter past two.
A Oh yes, now I remember. Then I'll see you there at quarter past three, right?
B OK, see you there.

4 What did Cathy's mother do on holiday?
A How was your holiday, Cathy?
B Brilliant! I skied the whole time and my brother went snowboarding.

A But your brother is only 5 years old!
B Well, my mother was with him. She usually prefers relaxing in the sun while we ski, but this time she taught him to snowboard.

5 How did Samantha get home from school?
A Sorry I'm late, Mum...
B What happened? Was there a problem with your new scooter?

You will hear a teacher telling his students about a sports centre for teenagers.

Welcome to Georgetown Sports Camp. I'd like to give you some information: during your time at the camp you will find fourteen different sports, five indoor activities and nine outdoor sports. If you want to do a sport, just write your name on the lists of the sports you would like to do.
Now, clothes. For most sports you can just wear shorts and a T-shirt. As we do both indoor and outdoor sports, make sure you have a pair of trainers with you, too.
Lunch is served at the snack bar from quarter past twelve and quarter to two. You will find sandwiches and drinks to buy there, but if you want salad or fruit, you need to go to the little shop near the bus stop. Don't eat too much or you won't be able to run and jump!
For each sport you do, you will get a mark and each mark goes into your final score. If you get over 190 marks in total, you will get a tennis racket. The maximum score is 250 and those who get that score will win a surfboard.
I hope everything is clear.

Sandy Yes, they have a boy, right? Karl. He's 13 like me...
Father That's right. Well, they're coming to England next week. They've never been here so I want to plan something fun for them. What do you think?
Sandy Well, they must spend a day in London! They could start the day by going on a tour bus around the city. Then they could go to the theatre or one of the many parks?
Father Do you think the boy will like that? How about going to a museum?
Sandy Actually, I found it a bit boring.
Father But everyone visits museums on holiday!
Sandy I think you should choose something outdoors, like a trip to the coast. Karl loves windsurfing.
Father I'm not sure his parents like windsurfing though. Maybe I could drive them all to the countryside.
Sandy Why not… It's very relaxing so I'm sure they'll like it.

Father Or maybe I should just call them and ask?
Sandy No. Let's write a list of things they could do and then email it to them. They can choose what they'd would prefer to do.

B I did, but I think she should have invited more people from our school. I didn't know anybody there. Fortunately, I danced to my favourite music all the time.
A Well, what I really loved was the cake. Elizabeth's mum made it!
B I just had a little slice. You know I prefer eating sandwiches and chips at parties.

17 You will hear two friends talking about a teacher. Why is she leaving the school?
A Have you heard about Ms Jenkins? She's leaving the school next week.
B Yes. I was really sad, but I understand she wants to live closer to her old parents. She's going to teach in a school near their house.
A I thought she was bored of teaching and had changed her job. After all, she can speak four languages. She can travel everywhere.

18 You will hear two friends talking about a test. What do they agree about?
A How did you find the test, Ewan? It took me ages to finish it.
B It wasn't as long as some of the other ones. I studied a lot for it, but it was still really hard.
A Yeah, you're right. The ones we did in the first term were much easier.
B Let's hope the next one will be better!

19 You will hear two friends talking about a photo. Which one does the girl want to use for a competition?
A Look, Ted. Do you like my photo for the competition?
B I don't know. What's so special about a tree in the middle of a field? I think the one with the butterfly is much better.
A Yes, maybe you're right. It's more colourful. I chose blank and white for the tree, but maybe it's a bit sad. Anyway, I'm sure Terry will win with her picture of the beach.

20 You will hear two friends talking about afternoon courses. What is the boy interested in?
A So, which course are you doing this year?
B Well, I really enjoyed learning to paint better last year, but this year I'd like a change. I love acting and I'd really like to be an actor one day.
A I know, but it's not that easy. Why don't you do the guitar course with me? I'm sure you'll like it.

Michael Oh, it went really well. Everybody enjoyed making their own clothes.
Mother So, whose was the best?
Michael Well, Martha's trousers were the most surprising. She used her father's old coat to make them, you know.
Mother And what about June? Every time I see her, she's wearing a new pair of shoes!
Michael Yes, she is crazy about shoes. But, no, she made a pretty skirt out of an old dress.
Mother And James loves wearing ties, doesn't he?
Michael Yes, but he didn't make one. He made a hat from plastic bottles. That was my favourite!
Mother I'd like to see a photo of that!
Michael Actually, I took some photos. Look… here's one of Steve. He made a very funny T-shirt.
Mother It's great! And did anyone like your jumper?
Michael I think so, but Walter's hoodie was much nicer than my jumper. He loves fashion. I'm sure he'll be famous one day.

You will hear a teacher telling his students about piano lessons for teenagers.

Morning everyone. As you know, you all have the possibility to join Mr Shelley's piano lessons, starting from next week. That's' S H E L L E Y. You can join the lessons if you have a piano at home, but keyboards are OK too.

Lessons are on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, but on Wednesday you already have the French course with Mrs Dufour, so your day will definitely be Tuesday.
Now, the price. A single lesson for two students is £25 pounds an hour or £15 for half an hour. I suggest you start with the one-hour lesson, then once you know the basics you can do half an hour. You must go to Mr Shelley's house which is very close to Queen's Square. The exact address is 105 Main Street. Remember to call him first, his number is 0753 715380. Did you get it right? I'll say it again: 0753 715380. The best time to call him is between six and nine.

Ravi Actually, I want to see the horror film.
Jed Oh no, I hate scary films. The sci-fi one sounds good, though.
Ravi Good idea. Let's see that.
Jed Is it on at the cinema near the market?
Ravi No, that cinema is shut at the moment. It's also not on at the cinema opposite the station.
Jed So, let's go to the cinema in the shopping centre. How are you getting there?
Ravi You can take the train, but there are lots of buses from outside my house.
Jed OK. I can walk to your house and get the bus with you. What time shall I meet you?
Ravi Let me think. The film starts at 6.15 p.m. It takes about 20 minutes to get there. So come to my house at twenty to six.
Jed OK. How much money are you taking? Tickets cost five pounds fifty, right?
Ravi No, they're six pounds fifty but I'll take ten pounds so I can get a drink and a snack too.

A That's on Saturday: it's your father's birthday, don't you remember? We're having a surprise dinner party with them.
B Oh, you're right. Then we can go. I can't wait: I love pizza!

17 You will hear two friends talking. When does the football match start?
A Hurry up, Amanda. It's already quarter past six and the match begins in 45 minutes.
B Don't worry, Sam. Roger and his father are going there by car. I asked him if he can drive us there, too. So we'll be there by six forty-five.
A Good. So we'll have time to buy some drinks as well before it starts at seven.

18 You will hear a girl, Sue, talking to her friend. What is she doing in the afternoon?

A Hi, Sue. Where have you been?
B I was in the park with my aunt's dog. I always work as a dog-sitter on Saturday mornings.
A Cool! Shall we go to the cinema after lunch?
B OK, but we'll have to go to the 2.30 show because I'm having dinner at my grandfather's this evening.

19 You will hear a man and a woman talking about buying a TV. What size do they want to buy?
A Cindy, how about this TV on the second shelf? It looks perfect for the kitchen.
B I don't know. It looks as large as the one we have in the living room... it might be too big for the cupboard near the fridge.
A Maybe you're right. Let's get a smaller one. We need more space to cook in the kitchen.

20 You will hear a boy talking to his friend. What is he going to buy to his grandmother?

Nick It's a new computer game that my uncle gave me for Christmas. It's great!
Tina Cool. What did you get from your grandfather? Did he buy you a new mobile phone?
Nick I asked for one, but my mum said it was too expensive, so he bought me a skateboard.
Tina What did your sister get you this year? Another T-shirt?
Nick No, actually she gave me this jacket I'm wearing. What do you think?
Tina Nice! You usually get a book from your aunt, don't you?
Nick Yes, you're right. She usually gives me a book, but she gave me some money this year. It was quite a surprise!
Tina And what about your mum?
Nick Well, she bought me a book. I haven't read it yet.
Tina I bet your brother got you some music.
Nick Yes, he got me this awesome new CD. In fact, let's listen to it now!

1 Where are they meeting?
A Are you still coming to the cinema tonight?
B Yes, shall we meet in the new coffee shop first?
A I'm not sure. I went there yesterday.
B We could meet in front of the library?
A No, the coffee shop is a better idea.

2 What time does the match start?
A Hurry up, Jane! We'll be late for the basketball match!
B Don't worry, Dad, it doesn't start until 10 o'clock.
A Yes, I know. But the bus leaves at twenty to ten and it's already half past nine!

3 What's the man's job?
A Jim's a nice guy, isn't he? I met him when I was at the doctor's last week.
B Yes, he was a teacher at my son's school, you know.
A Really? Isn't he a police officer? I'm sure he is.
B He is now, but before that he taught English.

4 What did the boy lose?
A Hello, can I help you? You don't look very happy.
B I put my camera next to the radio over there, and now I can't find it.

A Oh dear, that's a shame. Have you got a mobile phone? You can take photos with that instead?

5 What does she choose?
A So, Shirley, what are you having to eat?
B Well, I quite like meat, and I love vegetables, so I'm not sure.
A Why not have a pizza which has got both on it?
B Yeah, I'll do that. It's the easiest thing to order.

You will hear a teacher telling her students about a hotel they will stay in during a trip.

Good morning boys and girls. Let's have a look at the hotel information for our trip to Edinburgh. When we arrive in town, we'll go straight to St Andrew Square, which is 5 minutes' walk from the railway station and very close to our hotel, the Dork, which is in George Street. Tell your parents that the price for a double room is 120 pounds a night, and a single room is 90 pounds a night. So, if you're sharing a room, the price is 60 pounds a night.
The hotel is very big, there are 100 bedrooms, but we only need 20, possibly on the same floor.
It's a very nice hotel with a lot of facilities, such as a gym, a sauna and even a swimming pool, but we won't have time for any of those, we've got a very busy schedule!
So, did you get the address right? It's George Street, and the hotel is opposite the Post Office.

Track 38

You will hear a conversation in a shop.

A Hello, can I help you?
B Ah, yes please. I'm looking for a present for my mum. It's her birthday next week.
A Let me see. Ah, here's a very lovely painting. What do you think?
B I really like the colour but it's too expensive for me. What else have you got?
A I know, how about this old guitar: you can't play it anymore, but it would look very good on the wall in your living room?
B My mum already has a guitar. She likes old things, you know, like stuff from the past. She thinks modern furniture is horrible!
A Then this Italian glass lamp is the perfect gift! I found it in a shop in Spain last year. It's fifty years old and very special. It still works too.
B Oh yes. The painting was very beautiful, but this table lamp is the best for Mum!
A Fine. So, that's thirty pounds.
B Oh, I haven't got the money now. Can you keep the lamp until next week? I'll ask my dad if he can come with me and get it next Tuesday after school.
A No problem, I'll see you next Tuesday.

Track 39

16 You will hear a boy talking to a shop assistant. What is he doing?
A Good morning, how can I help you?
B Actually, I'm just waiting with my baby sister: my grandfather's trying on a pair of trousers.
A Oh, yes, he's in the changing room right now. What a pretty sister you have! She looks like you a lot!
B Thanks...

17 You will hear a person asking for help. What's the problem?
A Excuse me, where can I buy a ticket? This machine isn't working and the bus will be here in a minute...
B Let me see… you need to select the number of tickets you want to buy first and then put the money in.
A Oh, that's why I couldn't put the coin in. Thanks for helping me, Madame.

18 You will hear a person asking for directions. What's the weather like?
A Excuse me, I'm afraid I'm lost. Do you know where this sushi restaurant is?
B I think it's the one behind the hospital. But it's at least five minutes from here and if you walk, you'll get wet.
A Oh, right. I don't even have an umbrella...
B Don't worry: if you take the underground and get off at the next stop, you'll be right in front of it.

19 You will hear two friends talking about a trip. Where are they meeting up?
A Are you ready for tomorrow's trip to London?
B Sure. I've packed the sandwiches and the drinks. Don't forget the camera. Last time we were already on the coach when you realised you had left it at home…
A Don't worry, Adam. See you tomorrow at the gate. The coach will be there at 7,30.

20 You will hear a person asking for information. When is the next bus?
A Excuse me, I need to go to Leeds. Does this bus go there?
B I'm afraid not. The one that goes to Leeds left at half past four. The bus runs every hour until 6.30: that's the last bus of the day.
A Well, it's ten to five. I guess I'll have a walk by the river while I wait for the next bus, then. Thanks.

Questions 21-25
Track 40

You will hear two girls talking about another girl. What does she do on each day of the week?

Lisa Hi, Karen, have you seen your sister today?
Karen Of course I haven't! It's Sunday, and you know my sister always goes ice skating on Sundays!
Lisa Oh yes. I suppose I'll have to see her tomorrow then.
Karen What? On Monday? No, she's joined a gym and she goes there every week.
Lisa How about Tuesday? Do you think she'll be free then?
Karen Maybe. But she usually goes to play tennis on Tuesdays.

Lisa Oh yeah. And on Wednesday she has her painting class.
Karen No, painting is now on Thursday. But you won't see her Wednesday because we're all going out to a restaurant for my dad's birthday.
Lisa OK, I'll wait until Friday!
Karen Umm, no, football is on Friday.
Lisa What? She can't even play football!
Karen Yeah, I know. But she likes to go and watch. Perhaps you can try and see her next week instead?
